

Role E: The Investment Manager, Malaysia

You favour the Malaysian project. You think that this offers the best potential for economic growth, and you have a good track record of financing projects in this area. In addition, you think there is good political and financial stability.

You are against the Canadian project as it offers the lowest yield of all the projects and the bank has not invested widely in North America so lacks the contacts and experience required for a project to be successful.