

Discussion Task

Looking Back

1. Why did you choose your essay question in Week 1, and would you choose the same question now?
2. How much did your understanding of the topic change during the project?
3. What was the biggest challenge you faced during the last five weeks?
4. What part of the process did you enjoy most?
5. What surprised you most about researching and writing on this topic?

Research and Sources

1. How did your annotated bibliography help you when you started writing?
2. Did any sources change your original opinion or argument? How?
3. How easy was it to find relevant academic sources in your field?
4. What have you learned about evaluating the quality of sources?
5. If you started again, what would you do differently when searching for literature?

Planning and Structure

1. How useful was the detailed essay plan?
2. Did your final essay follow your original plan closely, or did it change significantly?
3. Which section of your essay was the easiest to write?
4. Which section was the hardest to write?
5. What have you learned about organising a long academic text?

Writing and Redrafting

1. How many major changes have you made since the first draft?
2. What types of feedback were most useful for improving your essay?
3. What aspect of your academic writing improved the most during this assignment?
4. What writing habit would you like to continue using in your postgraduate studies?
5. What is one weakness in your writing that you still want to work on?

Looking Forward

1. What advice would you give next year's students starting this project?
2. Which skills from this project will be most useful on your master's programme?
3. How confident do you feel about writing future assignments?
4. What will you do differently when you write your next university essay?
5. What are you most proud of in your final submission?

Quick Final Reflection Activity

Complete these prompts:

- One thing I am most proud of is...
- One mistake I would avoid next time is...
- One piece of advice I would give a future student is...
- One skill I have improved most is...
- One goal for my master's studies is...