

Practice: Speaking & Listening Assessment

You and your partner(s) are going to play the role of examiners.

- A. One of you should ask questions.
- B. The others should make notes about what the group did well and how they could improve.
- C. Make notes throughout the practice, but wait until the end of all three parts to give feedback.

PART ONE – GENERAL QUESTIONS (5 minutes)

Ask each student 2-3 questions from the list below. Ask each student a different question.

1. What has been the most interesting part of your experience at LSE so far?
2. If you could change one thing about student life in London, what would it be and why?
3. How do you usually manage your time when you have several deadlines at the same time?
4. What are the biggest differences between studying in the UK and studying in your home country?
5. If you had a free day with no academic commitments, how would you spend it?
6. What skill would you most like to develop during your university studies?
7. Do you think it is better to live close to campus or further away? Why?
8. What are your plans for the next five years, and what steps are you taking to achieve them?
9. How has technology changed the way students learn and communicate?
10. If a new international student asked for advice about studying at LSE, what would you tell them?
11. What do you think makes a city a good place for students to live?
12. Would you prefer to work in your home country after graduation or abroad? Explain your reasons.
13. How do you usually deal with stress during busy periods of the academic year?
14. What is one place in London that every student should visit at least once?
15. Do you think university education will look different in ten years' time? Why or why not?

FEEDBACK ON PART ONE

Student Name	What they did well	What they could improve	Any other comments

PART TWO – 2-MINUTE PRESENTATIONS (around 10 minutes)

- Open the PPT Slide on Moodle and choose one of the topics (social media, gender, demographics or climate change)
- Show the first presentation question to Student A. Give him/her 1 minute to read the slide and prepare an answer.
- Prompt the student to begin speaking after 1 minute.
- After 2 minutes, stop the student by saying “Thank you” if he/she is still speaking.
- Repeat as above for Students B and C.

FEEDBACK ON PART TWO

Student Name	What they did well	What they could improve	Any other comments

PART THREE (10 minutes)

THE LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Show students the slide with discussion questions on their topic. Say “Please discuss the questions on the slide. You can discuss the questions in any order. You do not need to discuss all of the questions. We will stop you when the time is up.”

After 10 minutes say “Thank you. That is the end of the assessment”.

FEEDBACK ON PART THREE

Student Name	What they did well	What they could improve	Any other comments

Once you have finished, give the students feedback. Then swap roles!
