

Paper C: Speaking & Listening

Putting it all together

THE LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE ■

Class overview

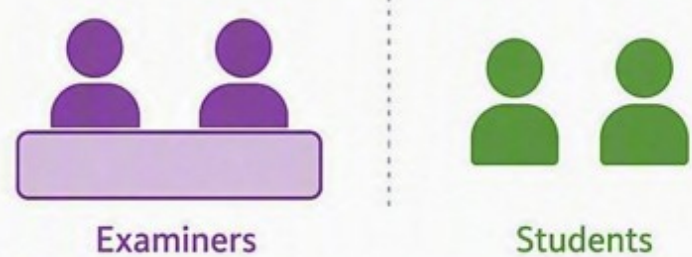

- This week, you will practice putting everything together.
- Your teacher will divide you into groups of 4, 5 or 6.
- You will take turns to play the roles of examiners and students. See overleaf.

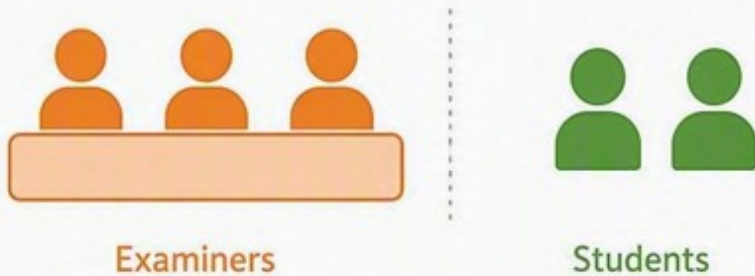

a) 3 examiners and 3 students

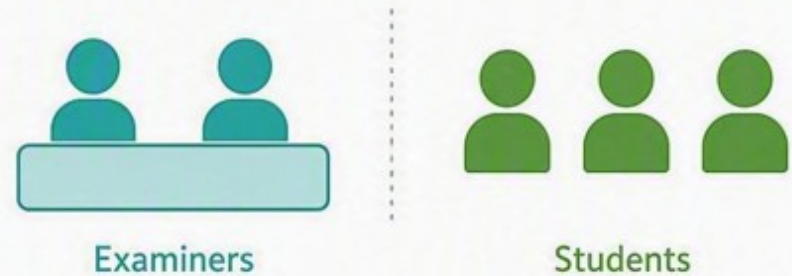

b) 2 examiners and 2 students

c) 3 examiners and 2 students

d) 2 examiners and 3 students

Examiners:

- Open the two documents on Moodle: “Instructions” and “Practice”
- Read the instructions and check that everything is clear.
- Choose which examiner will ask the questions and manage timing and identify which examiner(s) will take notes for feedback.

Students:

- Before the practice. Read the marking criteria and try to predict the questions you might be asked.
- After the practice. Ask the 'examiners' for feedback on what you did well and what you could improve.
